Editorial Assistant

THE REPORT welcomes manuscripts of OHIO material for proposed publication. All manuscripts should be sent to:

Editor, THE REPORT, 4649 Yarmouth Lane, Youngstown, OH 44512

The manuscript should be typed on standard-sized paper and have the author's name on each page; the pages should be numbered. A cover letter, giving permission of the author to publish the material in THE REPORT, should accompany the manuscript.

When sending photocopies of original old manuscripts, such as handwritten Bible records, please send a typed transcript for us to work from; it is usually much clearer on the original in your possession than on a photocopy.

The types of records requested for publication include Bible records, Ohio county court records (marriages, deed abstracts, naturalizations, will abstracts or other), Ohio cemetery inscriptions (not alphabetized), "How-To" articles (the use of special collections, holdings of a particular repository, etc.), abstracts from Ohio newspapers, brief family genealogies with Ohio connections (fully documented) and other material of an unusual but useful nature. The Editor makes the final decision on material to be published. Following publication, all original material is placed in the Ohio Genealogical Society Library in Mansfield. Every effort is made to present authentic material, but the Ohio Genealogical Society cannot be responsible for the accuracy or the publishing rights of the material furnished by contributors. All material is published with the permission of the contributor.

THE OHIO GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY is a non-profit, federally tax-exempt, State-Chartered organization. Individuals, librari or societies may apply for membership. Annual dues are $16.00 for individuals and $20.00 for joint members at the same address, for the calendar year. All members receive the quarterly journal, THE REPORT, and the monthly NEWSLETTER with membership.

MAILING: All issues are mailed directly from Mansfield, and any problems you may experience with delivery must be directed to the Ohio Genealogical Society in Mansfield, not to the Editor.

ANCESTOR CHARTS
If you wish to have your 5-generation ancestor chart considered for publication, send a copy to Mrs. Luetta Coates, 12477 U. S. Route 422, Southington, OH 44470. Charts submitted to OGS Headquarters are NOT sent to THE REPORT for publication. These are two separate projects. Only the charts of MEMBERS will be published, in the order received.

BOOK NOTICE POLICY
Books which are currently in-print and available for sale will be noticed in THE REPORT upon receipt of a gratis copy donated to the OGS Library. It is our policy to publish brief notices, not critical reviews. All books must be sent DIRECTLY to OGS Library, with complete ordering instructions and price. All other materials donated to the Library will be listed in the Accession List in the NEWSLETTER.

"THE SQUIRREL HUNTER" : 1987 ESSAY CONTEST WINNER

by DAVID LIGGETT, 131 W. Union St., Circleville, OH 43113

My great-great grandfather, SAMUEL WILSON PICKERILL, was born on 10 Mar 1841 in Brown County, Ohio. He was the son of WILLIAM F. PICKERILL and ABIGAIL FISHER PICKERILL. Samuel was born in Byrd Township on a farm on the west fork of Eagle Creek, about three miles from the small town of Decatur, Ohio. It was here that he would live his entire life, and it was here that he would make his contributions to the development and advancement of his community and our country.

Samuel received his formal education in the public schools of Brown County where he attended school in the Decatur district. Little else is known of his childhood; however, his continuing interest in education is shown in a visit in his later years to the rural one-room Beechwood School. At the time one of his granddaughters was the teacher and two others were students. On this occasion Samuel walked in, sat down on the recitation bench, picked up a text book, and took his turn reading aloud right along with the students—a memorable experience for all three girls!

On 29 June 1861 at the age of twenty-one, he married MARY JANE HOWLAND. Together they had seven children--five daughters and two sons—and raised six of them to adulthood.

Following in his father's footsteps, Samuel became a prosperous farmer. In the Brown County atlas of 1876, S.W.Pickerill is listed as owner of 153 acres. However, by 1883 he owned a total of 230 acres of farm land. According to all three of his granddaughters, there were four houses on the property. Two of them were family residences, and the other two were tenant houses. The ladies said that their grandfather mainly raised hogs, but he also had some beef cattle, milk cows, chickens and turkeys. Burley tobacco was one of his big cash crops; and in order to feed all the livestock, he grew a variety of grain crops. In addition, he had a large vegetable garden, and he was very proud of it.

When his hogs were ready for market, Sam Pickerill would hire some extra hands, and they would slowly drive the hogs the nine miles to market in Ripley, Ohio—an important pork market at the time. He often returned with a pineapple, a most welcome treat.

As a hobby, he trained pacing horses which he would show at the various fairs in the area. According to the Bee and Times newspaper for Wednesday, 1 Nov 1882, he won a variety of prizes at the October Grange Fair. These included first or "best" awards for his pacing horse, all work suckling stallion, and fine mare and family of three colts. He also received a second place with his draft brood mare with her colt by her side. In the vegetable division, my great-great grandfather won "best" with his Irish potatoes, beets, and squashes and was second with his white sweet potatoes and his tomatoes.

Samuel also had a large grove of sugar maple trees, and each spring he set up a camp and supervised the gathering of the sap and the making of the syrup—something he did with great care because pancakes with maple syrup was one of his favorite breakfasts. Another one was apple pie with ham gravy! Also, according to the Beers' 1883 History of Brown County, the first peach trees planted in the county were planted on Samuel Pickerill's farm.

To help promote the interests of agriculture in his community, Samuel Pickerill helped organize and establish the Eagle Grange No.561 which was charterd on 12 Feb 1874. He served as its first master and later served in other offices as well, including treasurer in 1882. He remained active in the group throughout his lifetime.

On 13 Oct 1887, Samuel hosted the Brown County Farmer's Fair on his farm. At this one day event there were displays of livestock, home products, and vegetables, as well as a show ring for horses and cattle. My great-great grandfather helped plan and organize this most successful event, and he also served as its "master of the ring." It was his responsibility to see that all ran smoothly and that good order prevailed. His interest in horses and fairs continued for the rest of his life, and at the time of his death he was serving as president of the Brown County Fair Board.

During the Civil War my great-great grandfather first served as a "Squirrel Hunter." The Squirrel Hunters were a corps of patriotic citizens who rallied to the threat of an attack on Cincinnati and the southern borderof Ohio in September 1862, by a band of "pirates" involved in the Rebellion. These men were requested by the governor to keep several days provisions ready at all times so that when the alert was sounded, they could leave at once. This same group of civilians also helped in the defense against the raids in southern Ohio by General John Hunt Morgan and his men in July 1863. Samuel Pickerill also served his country as a private in Company K, 162nd Regiment of the Ohio National Guard. This was one of the one-hundred-day regiments. It was organized on 2 May 1864, and was sworn into United States service on 16 May 1864. Two days later the regiment received marching orders for western Virginia. These men were not called upon to actually participate actively in any battles; however, they did guard the National government's stores and supplies, and they did accompany trains to and from the main bodies of the National troops that were camped in that area. Samuel served for the one hundred days and was mustered out with his company at Camp Dennison on 4 Sep 1864.

On 12 Sep 1908, a soldiers' monument was dedicated in Decatur, Ohio, to the memory of the soldiers from that community who had served in the Civil War. My great-great grandfather's name can still be found there today. After the war, Samuel became a member of the William Wirt Liggett Post, No.145, of the Department of the Ohio Grand Army of the Republic at Ripley, Ohio, and served as its commander.-

During his lifetime Samuel Pickerill belonged to two Masonic lodges. One of these was the Russellville Lodge, No.66, of the Free and Accepted Masons. The other was the Ripley Lodge, No.82, of the Royal Arch Masons. He was initiated into this lodge in 1874. He immediately became active, and in 1875 he was elected Master. He then served the lodge as its Past Master. Next he was elected the Most Exalted Ruler, and in 1882 he received the Most Honorable Degree. He remained in the lodge until lhis death at which time the Masonic Order had charge of his church service and also his graveside service. Several members of the lodge also served as pall bearers.

Another area in which Samuel served his community was politics. He was a member of the Democratic Party and he ran for County Commissioner on that ticket in 1882. He was successful in his bid for election and served in the position from 1883 through 1885 at which time he sought re-election. He was again successful and served another three year term as a Brown County Commissioner. Samuel was also a Byrd Township trustee for some five years.

An important part of Samuel's life was his work with his church. He was an active member of the Liberty Chapel Church in Byrd Township for 38 years. All three of his granddaughters remember that he was always at church on Sunday morning. For the last eleven years of his life he was the superintendent of the Sunday school. He also played the organ during the church services; and, after church was over, he would often invite several of the church members over to his home for dinner and for some homemade ice cream. On his farm he had one of the few ice houses in the area, and so he was able to invite guests to share his special treat even during the hot days of summer. Once a year the Liberty Chapel Church held a revival. Guest ministers from Transylvania College in Lexington, Kentucky, led these meetings. My great-great grandfather Pickerill always had an extra room in his home where these ministers could stay for as long as they wished. It was only fitting that after his death he was laid to rest next to the church that had meant so much to him.

Although Samuel Pickerill was never what I would call famous, and his name will probably never appear in any book other than a Brown County history book, his contributions to his family, to his occupation, to his church, to his community, and to our country are important. His accomplishments and those of many other men and women like him not only helped the people of their own times, but also served as the building blocks for much of our life as it is today. I am pleased that I have learned so much about my great-great grandfather. I have found Samuel Pickerill to be an energetic and generous person. I wish that I could have known him in real life: I have a lot to thank him for!!

CAPTAIN'S ACCOUNT BOOK, 1840-1856: BROWN CO., OHIO

Carol Willsey Bell, C.G.*

An old account book, found in Brown County and currently in the possession of Patricia Donaldson, PO Box 43, Georgetown, Ohio, contains various records relating to shipping on the Ohio River, perhaps in the Ripley area. In most cases, one page is devoted to a name, followed by various entries on the debit and credit accounts, for example "by services Mch 20 to May 2 at 100$ per month: 146.66" and payments of cash on various dates. The first page is devoted to H.S.THACKER, Master, who may be the keeper of this record, but there is nothing to identify its owner more than that. Several pages contain notations on the debit side of "to Hospital fees." A note on page 10 says "Fayetteville, Brown County." The pilot was paid $100 per month. Deck hands, firemen and cooks were paid at the rate of $15 per month, while the 2nd Engineer got $40 per month. Cabin boys were paid $10 per month. After the 1841 entries, the bookkeeper became careless and neglected to record the year; thus, many entries indicated here as 1856 may actually appear between 1841 and 1856. The earliest date is given.

Various newspaper advertisements during this time period indicate that shipping on the Ohio River was a rather complicated affair. Shippers may have had warehouses on shore, owned several vessels, and acted as transfer agents. The newspapers also indicate a large number of accidents on the water, frequently resulting in loss of life. These names are included here as "passenger list" of a sort...indicating that these persons may have been very transient during their employment on the River, and this list may help to pinpoint them in this area during this time period.

THE GOODWINS OF BLANCHESTER, OHIO, & ENVIRONS

by Walter B. Smith II, C.G.*

WILLIAM[1] GOODWIN was born 22 Mar 1790 in Harrison Co., WV.[1] He died 22 Apr 1832 ae 42[2] in Salem Twp., Warren Co., OH,[3] and is buried at West Mary Cem., Harlan Twp., Warren Co.,[4] a graveyard near Blanchester, OH. He was married 12 Feb 1812 in Harrison Co. to Jane HUSTEAD (or Husted),[5] who was born 6 Apr 1793 probably in Harrison Co., WV, and died 7 Nov 1866 aged 73 in Warren Co., OH, and is buried at the same cem. alongside William.[6] Although Jane's name appears as "Hustead" in their marriage record, the usual spelling was "Husted." Candidates for William's and Jane's fathers are these men taxed in Harrison Co. in 1800: John Goodwin, Jr., Francis Goodwin, John Husted, and Moses Husted. A Moses Husted served in VA in the Revolution and had a household there in the 1790 Census.

Jane was married, 2nd, 17 Mar 1839 in Warren Co. to Ebenezer COLLIER of Salem Twp., Warren Co.[7] Ebenezer had been a widower since the death of his wife Mary 20 Oct 1838 in Warren Co. ae 39. He was born 11 Nov 1794 and died 17 Feb 1861 ae 66 and is buried at New Hope Cem., Harlan Twp., Warren Co., OH.[8] When Jane died five years after Ebenezer, to whom she was married 22 years, her children had her buried alongside William and, loyal to their father, wrote on her stone that she had been "the wife of William Goodwin."[8]

William and Jane spent their first 14-15 married years in what was then VA;[9] Harrison Co. since 1865 has been in north-central WV, with Clarksburg the county seat. Goodwins are of record as marrying in Warren Co., OH, as early as 1815 and in adjacent Clinton Co., OH, 1829.[10] Possibly William and Jane followed older relatives in their migration. William and Jane moved to Ohio in 1826 or 1827 with their six children then living and settled in Salem Twp., Warren Co.,[11] where their sons Alexander and Levi were born in 1828 and 1832.

William's death there in Apr 1832 ae 42 may have occurred before Levi's birth. His estate was kept largely in tact until 1850 because Levi was a minor. The early death in 1848 of his son John at the age of 28 precipitated the liquidation of the remainder of the estate in 1850, John having left a widow. The real property was sold for $450 and the personal property for $103.87, a total of $553.87. John in his lifetime had received a total of $57.75 from the estate, and perhaps his older surviving siblings, Emily and James, had received like amounts; if so, the estate came to some $725.[12]

William CROSSON (1796-1879) handled the liquidation.[13] At the Aug 1839 session of the Warren Co. Probate Court, John Goodwin aged 18 and Robert Goodwin aged 15 had chosen Crosson as their guardian. The court appointed Crosson guardian also of "William Goodwin aged 13 and Levi Goodwin aged 9, other children of said deceased."[14] At the Mar 1842 session, "William H. Goodwin and Alexander Goodwin" chose Crosson as guardian,[15] which perpetuated the association. In the early years after William's death, his children were assisted also by William MORRIS, who settled in Salem Twp. about 1835 and whose daughter Lucinda later married William Goodwin's son Robert in 1848.[16]

The ch. of William Goodwin and his wife Jane Hustead, the first 6 born in Harrison Co., WV, and the last 2 in Warren Co., OH, were:[17]

i. EMILY[2] GOODWIN, b.8 Dec 1813
ii. JAMES GOODWIN, b. abt 1817
iii. MOSES GOODWIN, b. 26 Jun 1819; d. 13 Feb 1839 ae 19 and bur. with his parents at West Mary Cem., Harlan Twp., Warren Co.; never m.[18]
iv. JOHN GOODWIN, b. 1820
v. ROBERT GOODWIN, b. 29 Aug 1823
vi. WILLIAM H. GOODWIN, b. 1826
vii. ALEXANDER GOODWIN, b. 2 Jul 1828
viii. LEVI GOODWIN, b. 1832.

EMILY[2] GOODWIN was born 8 Dec 1813 in Harrison Co., WV. She died 5 Sep 1888 ae 74 and is buried at Crosson Cem., Harlan Twp., Warren Co., OH (her stone is legible).[19] She was married 9 Nov 1830 in Warren Co. to William R. RUNYAN,[20] who was born 15 Jul 1808 in Harrison Co., WV, and died 19 Feb 1852 ae 43 and is buried at the same cem.[21] (He was not the son of David RUNYAN, early settler of Warren Co., coming from PA.[22]) Whether Emily and her husband had children is not known.

JAMES[2] GOODWIN was born about 1817 in Harrison Co., WV. He died 1 Dec 1892 ae 75 in Harlan Twp., Warren Co., OH,[23] and is buried at Blanchester Cem. (Section 3, Lot 26), Marion Twp., Clinton Co., OH.[24] He was married 1st, 30 Dec 1838 in Warren Co. to Susanna BOWMAN,[25] perhaps daughter of Daniel BOWMAN (1796-1870) and his wife Mary ——— (1797-1879) of Warren Co.[26] She is probably the "Susan Goodwin" buried alongside James at Blanchester. He was married, 2nd, about 1855 in Warren Co. to Rebecca Ann WHITACRE, who was born about 1837 and was buried 8 Aug 1922 ae about 85 at Blanchester alongside James.[27]

James as of 1840 headed a household in Salem Twp., Warren Co., OH, which included an infant daughter.[28] He is said to have lived briefly in the 1850s in Indiana.[29] Most of his life, however, he farmed in Harlan Twp., Warren Co., OH, where he owned land. We know the names of his children from his probate. The ch. of James Goodwin and his wife Susanna Bowman, born in Warren Co., OH, were:

i. HESTER J.[3] GOODWIN, b. 1839
ii. JOHN W. GOODWIN, b. abt 1841
iii. JAMES GOODWIN, Jr., b. abt 1843; d. 20 Jan 1848, bur. at Basinger Cem., Harlan Twp., Warren Co., OH (his stone evidently says "James GOODEN").

The ch. of James Goodwin and his wife Rebecca Ann Whitacre, b. in Warren Co., OH, except that perhaps the 1st or the 2nd was b. in IN, were:

iv. ALEXANDER GOODWIN, b. perhaps abt 1857
v. EMILY CAROLINE GOODWIN, b. perhaps abt 1859
vi. AUSTIN C. GOODWIN, b. perhaps abt 1861
vii. ARTHUR S. GOODWIN, b. perhaps abt 1865; res. 1892 at Mason, OH (father's probate); nothing else found viii. FLORA E. GOODWIN, b. perhaps abt 1868; m. ——— DUDLEY; res. 1892 at Auburn, OH (father's probate); no more known ix. MIRZA J. GOODWIN, b. abt 1872 (1910 Census)
x. LILLIE G. GOODWIN, b. perhaps abt 1874; not m. as of her father's probate in 1892; res. then at Blanchester, OH; no more known.

JOHN[2] GOODWIN was born in 1820 in Harrison Co., WV. He died 29 Dec 1848 ae 28 in Warren Co., OH, and is buried there at Basinger Cemetery, Harlan Twp..[31] He was married 7 Apr 1839 in Warren Co. to Catherine DOUGHMAN,[32] who was the daughter of Christian DOUGHMAN (1787-1863) and his wife Margaret ELZROTH of Warren Co.; Margaret was born about 1790 in PA.[33] When John was married as a minor in 1839, his mother gave her formal consent, with his stepfather Ebenezer Collier plus William Morris serving as witnesses. The 1840 Census shows John as a head of household in Salem Twp., Warren Co. During his lifetime John received a total of $57.25 from his father's estate. His early death precipitated the liquidation of the balance of the estate, of which his share, as one of the seven heirs, was $81.12, including $2 in interest. John's share was consumed by payments to his stepfather ($3.25) and to D. SMITH, H. STOKES, I. WILLIAMS, and Felix MORGAN (creditors?), plus John's share ($2.50) of the settlement fee.[34] The ch. of John Goodwin and his wife Catherine Doughman, b. in Warren Co., OH, were:[35]

i. MARTHA JANE[3] GOODWIN, b. abt 1840; bur. at Basinger Cem., Harlan Twp., Warren Co., OH; not married
ii. DANIEL GOODWIN, b. abt 1843; apparently d. young; buried at same.

Their possible children:

iii. ROBERT C. GOODWIN, b. abt 1845
iv. GEORGE W. GOODWIN, b. abt 1847.

ROBERT[2] GOODWIN was born 29 Aug 1823 in Harrison Co., WV.[36] He died 16 Apr 1898 ae 74 at Blanchester, Marion Township, Clinton Co., OH, and is buried there at IOOF Cem. (Section 3, Lot 40).[37] He was married 2 Mar 1848 in Salem Twp., Warren Co., OH, to Lucinda[8] MORRIS,[38] who was born 1 Apr 1831 in Warren Twp., Belmont Co., OH, and died 26 Feb 1917 ae 86 at Blanchester and is buried alongside Robert.[39] She was the daughter of William[7] MORRIS (1805-1873) (Richard[6], Richard[5], William[4], Richard[3], Lewis[2], Thomas[1]) and his wife Rebecca[5] THOMAS (1812-1901) (Cann[4], William[3], Thomas[2], William[1]). Lucinda's parents were residents of Warren Twp., Belmont Co., OH, from their marriage until about 1835, then of Salem Twp., Warren Co., OH, until 1864, and thereafter of Blanchester.[40]

Robert knew William Morris, his future father-in-law, while growing up in Salem Twp., Warren Co., to which William moved about 1835 from eastern Ohio. Robert moved about 1845 to adjacent Blanchester, Clinton Co., OH, where he established himself as a blacksmith. He bought two lots there in 1854 and two more in 1860.[41] In 1866 Robert bought a 130 acre farm four miles north of Blanchester, today located on Ohio Route 33, and farmed it with the help of his sons Morris and Lewis until moving back to the center of Blanchester and resuming his blacksmith business not long before 1880.[42] His father-in-law William Morris, also a blacksmith, moved to Blanchester in 1864 and acquired land there.[43] In Blanchester Robert built himself a house across the street from the school, which remained in family hands about 100 years. When Robert's widow died in 1917, it was acquired by his greatniece, Gladys M. GOODWIN, granddaughter of his brother Levi and wife of Harry M. DONOHOO. Buried at Blanchester with Robert, his wife Lucinda, and their son Lewis is "America GOODWIN," not further identified. This may have been a daughter who died in infancy.

Robert became a Quaker. He thus joined a tradition in his wife's family on both her mother's and father's sides since the 1600s. His wife's father's family, the Morrises, were among the first settlers of New Jersey and included Lewis Morris (1601-1691) of Barbados, a pirate, and Lewis Morris (1726-1798) and Gouverneur Morris (1752-1816), signers of the Declaration of Independence.[44] Robert's wife was descended through the Morrises from the Rev. Everardus BOGARDUS (1607-1647), second Domine of New Amsterdam.[45] Her mother's family, the Thomases, were among the earliest settlers of Pennsylvania and were friends of Benjamin FRANKLIN in his youth.[46]

The ch. of Robert Goodwin and his wife Lucinda Morris, b. at Blanchester, Clinton Co., OH, were:[47]

i. CLARKSON[3] GOODWIN, b. 23 May 1848; d. 23 Jun 1848 and bur. with his Goodwin grandparents at West Mary Cem., Harlan Twp., Warren Co., OH[48]
ii. MORRIS GOODWIN, b. 1 Aug 1849; farming with his father at Blanchester and single as of 1870 (census); absent as of 1880 (census); evidently not buried in the area; no more known
iii. SUSAN GOODWIN, b. 21Jun 1851
iv. LEWIS GOODWIN, b. 8 Dec 1853; d. 17 Mar 1894 ae 40 and buried with his parents at IOOF Cem., Blanchester (Sect. 3, Lot 40); farming with his father in 1870 (census); apparently never m.
v. MARY ALICE GOODWIN, b. 13 Jun 1856
vi. ELLA GOODWIN, b. 2 Sep 1858; at home in 1870 but absent in 1880 (censuses); no more found
vii. HARRY GOODWIN, b. 28 Oct 1860; at home in 1880 (census); nothing further known viii. HORACE GOODWIN (twin), b. 28 Oct 1860
ix. WILLIAM GOODWIN, b. 24 Mar 1863; at home in 1880 (census); nothing else known
x. WALTER GOODWIN, b. 24 Aug 1865; at home in 1880 (census); nothing else found
xi. CATHERINE GOODWIN, b. 3 Jan 1870.

WILLIAM H.[2] GOODWIN was born in 1826 in Harrison Co., WV.[49] He died 26 Nov 1886 ae 59 at Blanchester, Clinton Co., OH.[50] He was married about 1848 probably in Ohio but evidently not in Warren or Clinton Co. to Julia Ann ———, who was born about 1822 at Cincinnati, Hamilton Co., OH, and died 24 Jul 1892 Blanchester.[51] William and Julia may be the Mr. and Mrs. William GOODWIN who are buried in lot 13 of IOOF Cem. in Blanchester (the lot has no other Goodwins).

As of 1850 and 1860 William was a farmer in Salem Twp., Warren Co., OH.[52] By 1870 he had acquired and moved to his farm at nextdoor Blanchester, Marion Twp., Clinton Co., OH, his home the rest of his life. In 1870-1880 his farm was near that of his brother Levi and, in 1870, before his brother Robert moved back to the town, near Robert's farm (censuses). In 1850, before William and his wife had started having children of their own, they had a four year old named Nancy CRANMER living with them (census), perhaps a relative of his wife's. The ch. of William H. Goodwin and his wife Julia Ann ———, b. in Salem Twp., Warren Co., OH (censuses), were:

i. REBECCA[3] GOODWIN, b. abt 1850
ii. EMILY GOODWIN, b. abt 1852; at home in 1870 but not in 1880 (censuses); nothing further known
iii. IDA MAY GOODWIN, b. 22 Feb 1854
iv. HUSTEAD GOODWIN, b. about 1859; farming with his father in 1880; no more found
v. EVA E. GOODWIN, b. about 1862.

ALEXANDER[2] GOODWIN was born 2 Jul 1828 in Salem Twp., Warren Co., OH. He died 2 Sep 1853 ae 25 in Warren Co. and is buried there at West Mary Cem., Harlan Twp.[53] He was married there 26 Apr 1849 to Eliza LUNDY, who survived him.[54] She was probably the daughter or sister of Israel LUNDY (see below).

For some reason Alexander does not appear in Warren Co., OH, in the 1850 Census. On 15 Sep 1853 the Warren Co. Court appointed Israel Lundy the administrator of Alexander's estate, his widow declining, and B. B. GETZENDAMMER, Peter TOMKIN, and George BOWMAN, Jr., the appraisers; William MORRIS and George BOWMAN, Jr., were the sureties. On 26 Jan 1854 the inventory and bill of sale were filed, and in June 1857 the estate was settled.[55] Bowman was probably a relative of the wife of Alexander's brother James; Morris was his brother Robert's father-in-law. The ch. of Alexander Goodwin and his wife Eliza Lundy, no doubt b. in Warren Co., OH, and bur. there alongside their father (see their gravestones), were:

i. MARIETTA[3] GOODWIN, b. 31 Jan 1850; d.23 Jul 1850
ii. ELMA GOODWIN, b. 1 Oct 1850; d. 9 May 1851
iii. ANN MARIAH GOODWIN, b. 22 Jul 1851; d.31 Jul 1852.

LEVI[2] GOODWIN was born in 1832 in Salem Twp., Warren Co., OH.[56] He died in 1903 at Second Creek, Marion Twp., Clinton Co., OH (on the edge of Blanchester), and is buried at IOOF Cem., Blanchester, OH (Section 3, Lot 40).[57] He was married about 1858 in Warren Co. to Hannah RUNYAN,[58] who was born there in 1842 and died in 1904 in Clinton Co. and is buried alongside Levi, daughter of David RUNYAN and his second wife Rebecca SHARP.[59] The 1850 Census shows Levi, aged 18, living with and working for John W. RICE, farmer of Salem Twp., Warren Co., OH.[60] He lived in Illinois in 1869-1871 or perhaps longer but soon moved to Marion Twp., Clinton Co.,[61] where he owned a farm near Blanchester.[62] According to his sons, Levi was a staunch Republican and a Baptist.[63] The ch. of Levi Goodwin and his wife Hannah Runyan, the first 4 b. in Salem Twp., Warren Co., OH, the 5th and 6th in IL, and the last 4 in Marion Twp., Clinton Co., OH, were:

i. EDWARD M.[3] GOODWIN, b. 3 Jan 1861
ii. ISABELLE GOODWIN, b. about 1863
iii. WILLIAM M. GOODWIN, b. about 1865
iv. CAREY ALLEN GOODWIN, b. 18 May 1867
v. ORVILLE GOODWIN, b. about 1869; living in 1915; called Ora;[64] nothing else known
vi. HERMAN GOODWIN, b. about 1871; living in 1915;[65] no more found
vii. LEWIS EMERSON GOODWIN, b. about 1873 viii. ELEBERT GOODWIN, b. about 1876; known as Bert;[66] res. 1958 at Spring Valley, Warren Co., OH; no more known ix. ROBERT GOODWIN, b. 1878 or 1879; reached adulthood and lived in Blanchester; confused by some young cousins with his uncle Robert Goodwin; perhaps d. young; no more known
x. EDA PEARL GOODWIN, b. Feb. 9, 1881.[67]

TRUMBULL COUNTY: LIBERTY TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE RECORDS, 1829-1845

Carol Willsey Bell, C.G.*

The Township Trustees' Minute Book for Liberty Township, Trumbull County, Ohio, recently turned up for sale at a used book store. Although it is illegal to sell governmental records, this volume had come from a private home along with a collection of other books. The writer purchased the book, photocopied it, and returned the original to its rightful home in the Trustees' office. An every-name index has been prepared.

Township Records may be difficult to find unless the township officials have been careful to preserve them. Many times, they ended up in the home of a township official, and consequently may have ended up in the hands of the family, rather than in the township office. They may contain important genealogical information, such as indentures of children, commitments to the county infirmary, naturalizations, and notices of "warning out" paupers, as well as the day-to-day township business. The following indentures have been copied verbatim, due to their sometimes colorful language, and to outline the terms under which children were apprenticed. Also included are notices to depart the township, and indications of paupers who were cared for by the township officials. The original spelling has been retained.

INDENTURES OF CHILDREN

EQUAL TIME: THE VIEW FROM THE OTHER SIDE OF THE DESK

Henry R. Timman*

Recent publicity in the publications of the Ohio Genealogical Society concerning the possible closing of Probate Court records to researchers in Ohio is of great importance and concern. There is not a general closing of all records planned; but, rather, some problem with adoption and mental illness records mingled with other records in older Probate Court volumes. Apparently the problem is abated for the time being.

There is always a problem with accessibility of records in courthouses and departments of health, and these should be of concern to researchers. Of course, the prime function of those offices is to do the daily tasks outlined by the Ohio Revised Code but there is also some obligation to oblige those who want to see the records thus created.

As Chief Deputy Clerk in the Huron County Probate Court and as a professional researcher of many years, I am often amused by the researchers who come to our office. There is no way to standarize people and their approach, but I do feel it should be a major concern of the Ohio Genealogical Society and of all instructors, to make researchers aware of some "dos and don'ts." Most researchers try to coexist with courthouse clerks, but the others have said and done things which might explain why the clerks react as they do to genealogists.

For instance, the researcher who arrives late and wants to stay even later; the researcher who doesn't have a pen or paper; the researcher who criticizes the handwriting and content of 100-year-old records; the researcher who brings in his lunch from the local "greasy chicken" palace; the researcher who brings his/her children along to be amused (or to amuse) the entire courthouse; and even the researcher who tried to make her own copies on the court's copy machine. We don't want to forget, either, those who have eight or ten books out at one time and piled on top of each other so the bottom one gets smashed sufficiently and the binding broken; the researcher who puts marriage record 23 in the slot where will record 8 belongs; and the researcher who tells you a long story about the ancestor being sought, and then later wants you to analyze the evidence found in the Court records.

It has always been my belief that a researcher should be aware of the history of the area, the hours of the courthouse, or other research facilities, and should be equipped with pen and paper. The "five and dime" is just down the street from Huron County's Courthouse, and more than once a person has been directed there to obtain supplies.

It is impossible, of course, to make everyone think the way I do, but researchers should be aware of rules of good operation. I believe this also applies to those who write for information.Did you ever fail to receive a reply? Nine chances out of ten it was because you didn't send return postage. Our Court's budget is tight, and there is no room for postage for research letters and I don't believe there should be. Including return postage is always good manners, and will usually bring you an answer. Oh, perhaps you're one of those who writes and asks for everything on the Johnson family of Peru Township. In case you didn't already know, courthouse records are by topic and usually chronological, not arranged by family.

I could go into several more specifics, but I think I've made the point that there are two sides to this question and sometimes "bad" researchers have turned the clerks against "their kind" in general. It is also my opinion that anyone who uses the phrase "public servant" is damaging an already fragile relationship. I know that I am a public employee, but I also pay my share of taxes and therefore am not a public servant. But then, the man I buy my auto from is a public employee, too. I support him by buying an auto from him, just as I support my grocer by buying from him. So, you see, aren't we all public servants/employees of one kind or another? We must all please the public who spends money with us, to the best of our ability.

Please do keep in mind that your attitude and manners are of prime importance while working in a public facility.

Remember "Do unto others..." !!

It is spelled G-A-L-L-I-P-O-L-I-S

It is pronounced GAL' -A- PO - LEES'

Gallipolis is a beautiful small city located on the Ohio River in southeastern Ohio, midway between Pittsburgh and Cincinnati. The name derives from the Latin - "Galli" for Gaul or France and the Greek -"polis" for city. It is familiarly known as "The City of The Gauls" and "The French City."

Settled in 1790 by men and women from France - the group popularly known as the French 500 - it has a rich historical background, much of which has been preserved in the Our House Museum, an early hotel visited by numerous prominent French people of the day, including General Lafayette.

PROBLEM IN INTERPRETING AGES IN FEDERAL CENSUS

A number of possible inaccuracies arise in ages as shown in censuses. The subject may have lied because: (1) he or she didn't want to admit the actual age, or (2) there was not a conventional relationship between the ages of a husband and wife. Probably a more common reason for inaccuracy was that the person giving the information to the enumerator simply was guessing, and innocently gave the wrong facts. Only one person answered for the household, and the information was only as good as that person's knowledge.

However, a very common error in interpretation occurs even though the facts were reported correctly to the enumerator. This problem arises because of faulty calculation with respect to the reported age. Let's say, for example, that John Smith is listed as being 35 years of age in the 1850 census, and let's assume that the age was reported correctly. It is a frequent error that John's birth year is consequently reported as having been "1815." This is not precise. His birth year was either 1814 or 1815. The census was taken in June or July, and the age reported was usually the age at the last birthday. As a result, if John had been born in September 1814, he would have said (in June or July 1850) that he was 35 years old. This was correct because John had not yet had his 36th birthday, yet if one subtracts 35 from 1850 one concludes that he was born in 1815, which is not correct.

The best conclusion that can be made from a census age is that the subject person was born in the year arrived at by subtracting the age from the census year, or in the previous year.

Other problems may occur due to the enumerator recopying the information before submitting it. Sometimes the information is transposed, or dropped down one line.

Researchers should also be aware that the birth years reported in the 1900 census are frequently off by one year.

THE SECOND GLANCY FAMILY OF OHIO

by Walter B. Smith II, C.G.*

The Two Glancy Families

The Glancy family of Ohio founded in the early 19th century by James (1765-1828), of Knox County, soon spread to all the neighboring states. The writer published a genealogy in 1986 recording over 2,500 James Glancy descendants, copies of which are on deposit in the OGS Library, the Licking County Historical and Genealogical Societies, and elsewhere in the Midwest. The family has several hundred members living in Ohio today. It is often confused with the first Glancy family of Ohio, founded by Jesse (1754-1831), who came in December 1804 with an extended household to Clermont County.

The aim of this article is to delineate the two and to identify James' children. It also provides new information on Jesse's origins, which may contain leads on the forebears of James. Jesse came to Ohio from York County in eastern Pennsylvania. James, arriving about in Knox County, Ohio, twenty years later, came from Allegheny County in western PA. There are signs he, too, originated in eastern PA. That James and Jesse were closely related seems quite possible.

Jesse, Founder of the First Ohio Family

JESSE GLANCY, son of Terrence, was born 1756 probably in Delaware or perhaps in York Co., PA. He died 16 Sep 1831 ae 75 in Stonelick Twp., Clermont Co., OH, and is buried there. His will has survived.[1] He was married 1783 perhaps in PA to Rachel COPELAND, born 1760 and died 3 Jan 1828 ae 67 in Clermont Co., a Quaker (alleged by some to be a Mayflower descendant). Jesse is understood to have served in PA units in the Revolution and to have seen action at the Battles of Brandywine, PA, and Monmouth, NJ, which suggests that he may have wintered 1777-78 at Valley Forge under George WASHINGTON.

In August 1777 Jesse took the Oath of Allegiance in Chester Co., PA.[2] In 1778 he evidently returned to civilian life and was living at Christiana Hundred, DE, as he is listed there in the first (reservist) class of militia.[3] In 1781 he was on active duty in the York Co., PA, militia and, together with his brother William, empowered his brother Joseph to pick up his pay for him. Jesse's Revolutionary service must be well documented, as a descendant through his son John entered the DAR in 1916 on Jesse's service and another, through his son William (Dorothy Pray WILSON of Wheaton, MD), did so in 1983. Jesse had a household in York Co. in 1790 and 1800 and in Clermont Co., OH, in 1810, 1820, and 1830. Children:

i. WILLIAM GLANCY, b. 12 Aug 1784 in York Co., PA, and d. 7 May 1878 ae 93 at Monterey, Clermont Co., OH; m. 1807 in OH Elizabeth METCALFE, b. 14 Nov 1792 and d. 11 Mar 1849; 11 ch.

Jesse Glancy's Origins

TERRENCE GLANCY, father of Jesse, was b. abt 1730 perhaps in DE, PA, NJ, or MD, rather than in Ireland as often supposed (see below). He d. abt 1784 in Newberry Twp., York Co., PA. He was m. [this is newly found and hitherto unpublished information] 4 Dec 1754 in Holy Trinity (Old Swedes') Church at Wilmington, DE, to Elizabeth NEAL (or possibly McNEAL?), b. abt 1720 and d. after abt 1769 (birth of last known child) and perhaps much later, presumably in PA.[4]

Elizabeth was previously m. 1 Oct 1747 at Wilmington (same church), as his 2nd wife, to Charles COLLINS (1715-1750), who came from England in the 1730s and was m., 1st, to ---- HAMMOND, a Quaker. Charles and his 1st wife had Isaac Collins of DE, Philadelphia, and NJ, editor of the NJ Gazette and publisher of Bibles.[5] Elizabeth Neal and Charles Collins had 2 ch., William, who apparently d. young, and Sarah, who was m. 26 Mar 1771 at Wilmington (same church) to Nathaniel McGUIRE. Sarah and Nathaniel moved to Newberry Twp, York Co., PA, home of Terrence Glancy from at least 1767 on. Furthermore, they moved again, or at least Sarah did, to Clermont Co., OH, home of Jesse Glancy from 1804 on, where Sarah d. intestate in 1830, with James Glancy, her half brother William's son, among the appraisers.[6]

It is conceivable that Terrence's parents had known the family of his wife Elizabeth Neal for some time and even immigrated to America with them. The same could be true of the family into which Terrence's stepdaughter Sarah Collins married in 1771, the McGuires. It is worth noting that there is record of a John Neal, aged 20, of New Castle, DE, as serving in 1758 with "the PA troops from the three lower counties." Similarly, one Bartholomew McGuire, aged 30 and a native of Ireland, is recorded as enlisting in 1758 in New Castle Co., DE, in the same regiment of the PA Militia.[7]

Terrence was one of the earliest settlers of the upper end of York Co., PA.[8] He was taxed there in Newberry Twp. in 1767 and 1779 and received land several times in the period 1763-1773.[9] He and his son Joseph were neighbors of William RANKIN. When Rankin's estate was settled in 1783, Joseph and his brother Jesse were claimants against the estate.[10] Children:

i. JESSE GLANCY, b. 1756 (see above)

ii. JOSEPH GLANCY, b. 29 May 1758 and d. 25 Nov 1807 ae 49 at Newberry Twp., York Co., PA; m., 1st, 26 Oct 1779 Margaret KELTON, who d. 22 Dec 1781 and is bur. in Cumberland Co., PA; m., 2nd, 8 July 1786 Martha WILLITS, b. 5 Feb 1759 and d. 22 Aug 1804 ae 45; 9 ch.; served 1781 in the York Co. militia; had a household in York Co. 1800; lived along the road from Lancaster to Carlisle, app. in that part of Newberry Twp. which later became Fairview Twp.; operated a ferry across the Susquehanna, with his slip opp. the mouth of the Swatara R.; as York Co. Commissioner, planned the co.'s first road network; signed a letter to Pres. Jefferson[11]

iii. WILLIAM GLANCY, b. abt 1761 and d. bef. 1805; m.; at least 2 ch., 2 as orphans having accompanied Jesse Dec 1804 to OH; served 1781 in the York Co. militia; had a household in York Co. 1790[12]

iv. JACOB GLANCY, b. abt 1769; elected 1804 a York Co. Commissioner;[13] no more known.

Other Early Glancys

A strong candidate to be a brother of Terrence is PETER GLANCY, b. abt 1730 (judging from the date of his 1st marriage) and d. probably by early 1771 probably in East Bradford Twp., Chester Co., PA (see below). He was m., 1st, 11 Apr 1752 in Holy Trinity (Old Swedes') Church at Wilmington, DE, to Mary "McNAIL" [McNEAL?] [NEAL??]; m. there, 2nd, 10 Mar 1763 to Jane KING.[14] In 1753, 1765, and 1766 he was taxed as a tenant in Birmingham Twp., Chester Co.[15] By 1769 he had moved to East Bradford Twp., where he was taxed as a tenant.[16] He disappears from the tax lists starting in 1771, suggesting he had d. His wife (widow?) Jane d. intestate in East Bradford Twp., where Jan. 1779 her estate was administered by Mary King,[17] probably her sister or her daughter by a previous marriage. Peter may have been childless. If he did have ch., geography would suggest:

OWEN GLANCY, b. perhaps abt 1755 and d. app. abt 1809 at Honey Brook, Chester Co., PA; m. abt 1777 to Elizabeth PAWLING, dau. of Barney Pawling of Lower Providence Twp., Montgomery Co., PA;[18] at least 3 ch.;[19] schoolteacher; enlisted 1776 in the 2nd PA Regt.;[20] reservist 1780-81 in the Chester Co. militia;[21] on duty 1794 as a resident of Charleston Twp, Chester Co., with the Chester Co. Cavalry at Shippensburg in the PA Whiskey Rebellion together with a John GLANCY;[22] taxed 1780 as a tenant at Charleston;[23] had a household 1800 at Honey Brook, as did a John Glancy; Roman Catholic; Owen's name excites interest because James Glancy (1765-1828) of Knox Co., OH, named a son "Owen" in 1808.

Terrence and Peter Glancy may not have been in the 1st generation of Delaware Glancys or, if they were, may have been at the tail end of a string of siblings: a Jane GLANCY was m. Nov 1741 in Holy Trinity (Old Swedes') Church at Wilmington, DE, to William QUIGHTY.[24]

Other early Glancys of record in America are: John Glancy, received 1739 into the Friends Meeting of Gwyned, Montgomery Co., PA, from Philadelphia;[25] Darby Glancy, who landed 1746 at Philadelphia from Ireland;[26] Charles Glancy, married 1751 (Lutheran) at Philadelphia to

Catherine VAUGH;[27] Dennis Glancy, of Philadelphia by 1766, who had a family (served in the Revolution);[28] William Glancy, who 1769 had 2 ch. baptized (Roman Catholic) at Philadelphia;[29] Daniel Glancy, serving with the 3rd MD Regt. in the Revolution;[30] also, Thomas and Lawrence Glancy, of Cumberland Co., PA, by 1781[31] (possibly the same as the Lawrence of Crawford Co., PA, in 1800); Ferdinand Glancy, of Philadelphia by 1793;[32] William Glancy, of Butler Co., PA, before 1800;[33] Jesse Glancy, of Crawford Co., PA, before 1800;[34] Michael Glancy, of Philadelphia before 1809;[35] and William Glancy, of Pittsburgh before 1810.[36] The earliest Glancy for whom an explicit place of origin abroad has so far been found is John Glancy, native of co. Sligo, Ireland, naturalized 1827 aged 35 at New York, NY.[37]

James, Founder of the Second Ohio Family

JAMES GLANCY was b. 9 Sep 1765[38] and d. 28 Oct 1828 ae 63 in Harrison Twp., Knox Co., OH.[39] He was m. abt 1787 presumably in PA to Elizabeth LIGHTHILL,[40] who was b. 11 Jul 1767 and d. 5 Jul 1855 ae 87 in Knox Co., OH.[41] He may perhaps have served in the Revolution in 1781 in Lancaster Co., PA.[42] Whether he had already settled in western PA by the time of his marriage in abt 1787 is not known, nor have his wife's parents been determined.

There were Lighthill families starting in the early 19th century, if not earlier, in Pittsburgh, Allegheny City, and New Sewickley,[43] James having lived at or near these places in 1794-1825 and perhaps earlier. This does not preclude an east coast location for the marriage, however; both James and the Lighthills may have moved to western PA in the 1790s. According to a tradition among the Pittsburgh Lighthills, the family came abt 1770 from Germany.[44] If so, the name of George Lightberger (in German, the name is Lichtberger or Lichtenberger) recorded at Pittsburgh in the 1800 Census suggests what the original surname was; in German, "licht" means "light" and "berg" means "hill."

In Oct-Dec 1794 James was on active duty in the militia of Allegheny Co., PA,[45] no doubt in defense against raids by the Indians from the west, who were being squeezed out of their homelands by the rapid White settlement of Ohio. He was then living a few miles up the Ohio River from Pittsburgh, one mile north of Allegheny City, in that part of Pitt Twp. which later became Ross Twp.[46] His son David was b. there in 1795.[47] Pine Twp., formed in 1796, included the area. James sold oxen, cows, and a horse there in 1808.[48] Ross Twp., formed from Pine Twp. in 1809, was James' place of residence in the 1810 Census.[50] By 1816 he had moved a few miles west, when he was taxed at New Sewickley, Beaver Co., PA, close to the Ohio border. He was taxed there again in 1818-1821 and is listed there in 1820, with his newly married son Henry nextdoor.[51]

In the 1820s James moved to Knox Co., OH, home of his son David since 1819. (David and wife were recognized by the OGS 16 Jan 1987 as residents of Jackson Twp., Knox Co., in 1820 and as progenitors in the First Families of Ohio [membership no. 1409].) In May 1828 James bought 100 acres in Harrison Twp., Knox Co.[52] When he d. intestate five months later, David at the widow's request was appointed administrator.[53] Children:

FROM OHIO TO WISCONSIN

Ann M. Larson*

For our continuing series of articles on Ohioans in other parts of the United States, the following compilation comes from HISTORY OF NORTHERN WISCONSIN, Western Historical Co., Chicago, 1881. The first list is for those born in Ohio who came to Wisconsin, while the second list is those mentioned as born elsewhere, settled for a time in Ohio, and then moved on to Wisconsin. Where there are blanks, there was no information given. The accompanying map indicates the counties as they were in 1881. Obviously, this history covers a very large portion of the state. Sadly, no volume was compiled for Southern Wisconsin, but there are county histories for many of those counties.

BACHMAN/BAUGHMAN BIBLE RECORDS: 3 GENERATIONS

This family appears in records in Columbiana and Stark Counties, Ohio. The records cover the families of Judge Henry Bachman, Henry Baughman Jr., and Jacob M. Baughman.- The Bible of Henry Sr. & Jr. is owned by Mrs. Cora Baughman Harsh, Minerva, Ohio, while the Jacob M. Baughman Bible is owned by Mrs. Ralph Sponseller, Alliance, Ohio.

The older Bible is large and leather-bound, being the Third Edition, Germantown, printed and issued by Christoph Saur, 1776 [Christopher Sower]. The German translation was done by Margaret Miller Simon in March 1982. Copies of the Bible pages and the translation are on file at the OGS Library.

Bachman Bible Papers

ANO: In the year 1788, I HENRICH BACHMAN JUNR was born the 5th day of October. And my wife Elisabeth was born the 12th day of November 1794.

ANO: In the year 1812 a son was born into the world to us by the name JONATHAN BACHMAN the 31... (rest missing)

... by name ELISABETH BACHMEN the 6th day of September and her sign is Pisces.

ANO: in the year 1816 my wife ELISABETH BACHMAN died the 12th day of September.

(The first entry seems to refer to the birth of a daughter Elisabeth six days before the mother Elisabeth died. Note that the reference to her sign as Pisces [or the fish] is an indication of the hour of her birth—not the sign under which she was born. Each hour of the day is ruled by a planet which can be equated with one of the twelve signs of the zodiac.)

HENRICH BACHMAN JUNR. was born the19th day of August in the year 1820.

(PETER?) BACHMAN was born the 18th of February in the year 1822. [what looks like Efeter may be a strange "P"]

MARIA BACHMAN was born .... (rest missing)

"Die Ana" was born the 13 Myrz (March) 1835 (the first two words translate as "The Ana" but he could have meant Diana)

The other two papers appear to be the children of Henry Jr.'s father and mother. It is almost certain that Henry's father is also a Henry, since he calls himself Henry, Jr., but occasionally in this time period a "Jr." is a nephew or cousin.

ANO: In the year 1779 a daughter was born into the world to us the 7th day of February by name REBECA BACHMAN and married JOHANNES HUVER 12 February 1805 and died 9 August 1826. And he died 31 December 1843.

ANO: In the year 1781 a son was born into the world to us the 25th day of March 1781 by name JESIE BACHMAN, and married ANNA HUVER the 5th day of April 1804, and she died the 31st day of October 1843.

ANO: In the year 1784 a son was born into the world to us the 19th day of July 1784 by name GORG BACHMAN and married MARIA Mac_____ the 31st day of March 1807, and he (died?)- the (——) day of .... and she died the furten (vierten——4th?) day of September 1844? [Columbiana County marriages, v.1 p26, show George Bachman & Mary McIntire married 31 Mar 1807 by John Hoover, JP]

ANO: In the year 1788 a son was born into the world to us on the 5th day of October 1788 by name HENRICH BACHMAN, and married ELISABETH OBERHOLSER the 13th day of August...and she died in the year 1816 on the 13th day of September.

ANO: In the year 1790 a son was born into the world to us the 24th day of January 1790 by (name) JACOB BACHMAN, and married....buried the 26th day of March 1831...Anna... March 1815?

ANO: In the year 1794 a daughter was born into the world to us the 9th day of June 1794 by name ESTER BACHMAN and married ABRAHAM BARR the 31st day of Decmeber 1812.

ANO: In the year 1797 a daughter was born into (the world) to us the 18th day of March 1797 by name ELISABETH BACHMAN, and married DAVIT SCHNEITER the 21st day of January 1817.

THE BACHMAN/BAUGHMAN FAMILY

Though some burial records are missing, the Henry Bachman and Henry Baughman, Jr., family of Columbiana and Stark Counties, Ohio, can be well documented. Henry, Sr., was born 12 Oct 1759, Upper Saucon Twp., Northampton Co PA. Was baptized with his twin, John, at Tohickon Lutheran Church, Bucks Co PA (PENNSYLVANIA GERMAN CHURCH RECORDS, Pennsylvania German Society, Vol.III, p341), being the son of Heinrich and Elizabeth Bachman (researcher Mary Keysor Meyer). Henry died Feb 1850, Stark Co., OH of "old age" (MORTALITY SCHEDULE OHIO, 1850, Jackson Tp p13). He married c1778, ESTER BACHMAN, daughter of John George Bachman and Ester Oberholtzer (will of John George Bachman, probated 14 Apr 1806, Northampton Co PA, researcher Mary Keysor Meyer). Ester was born 8 Mar 1756 Upper Saucon Tp., Northampton Co Pa (GENEALOGIES OF PENNSYLVANIA FAMILIES, Pennsylvania Genealogical Society, Vol.III, p606-607, researcher Margaret M. Simon). Ester died between the Ohio censuses of 1830 and 1840, Nimishillen Tp., Stark Co OH.

Henry Bachman, Sr., was an original Associate Judge of Columbiana Co., Ohio (OHIO RECORDS & PIONEER FAMILIES 1:1:14) having been appointed in 1803 (HISTORY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY, OHIO, by Horace Mack, Ensign Pub.Co., 1879, p28). Before coming to Ohio, the family had resided in Cumberland and Washington Counties, Pa, close to Henry's brother George. George later settled in Franklin Co., OH, and in his Revolutionary War Pension papers, mentioned his brother Henry, who "lives at Canton, Ohio" (researcher:- Marie Ferree Johnson). Henry bought land in Unity Tp., Columbiana Co., OH 28 May 1801 (OHIO LANDS, STEUBENVILLE LAND OFFICE 1800-1820, by Carol Willsey Bell, C.G., 1983, page 9). He was listed in the 1806 Tax Lists as "Henry Bachman Esq." (EARLY OHIO TAX LISTS, by Esther Powell, p67). His son Jesse made ballot boxes for an early Columbiana County election. (Mack's HISTORY, p28). He and his family removed to Stark County about 1811, buying land on Section 36 in Nimishillen Township. (Stark Co OH deeds v95 p511), viz:

"Know all men by these presents that I Henry Baughman, Jr., of Stark County in the State of Ohio, do hereby bind myself my heirs and assigns unto Henry Baughman, Sr., his heirs and assigns of the same place in the sum of one thousand dollars to the payment of which well and truly to be made finely by these presents sealed with my seal dated this 9th day of October A.D. 1844. IMMIGRANTS FROM GRONENBERG-MELLE ON THE SHIP ORPHEUS

Dr. & Mrs. J.S. Poetker, 98 N.High St., Jackson OH 45640

The delight of finding ancestors' names on a passenger list is followed often by the researcher's realization that little useful information has been found. The list rarely contains details about immigrants' origins in their old country or their destinations in America. However, if the researchers know something of other passengers on the list, they may have evidence with which they can learn more about their ancestors.

Fortunately much is known about a number of the passengers listed on 7 Oct 1864 for the Ship Orpheus[1] that had sailed from Bremen to New York. The passengers' names indicate they were from northwestern Germany, and at least thirteen have been identified as coming from Amt Gronenberg (district of Gronenberg), Kingdom of Hannover.

Gronenberg is now a Kreis or county named after its main town, Melle. Gronenberg or Melle forms the eastern portion of the large district of Osnabruck and is in the present day state of Lower Saxony (Niedersachsen) along the boundary of the state of Westphalia (Nordrhein Westfalen). For a period in the early 1800's, Gronenberg was under the administration of the Kingdom of Westphalia rather than the Kingdom of Hannover. The Orpheus passengers from Gronenberg were:

POTCKER, MATHIAS	Buer-Barkhausen
POTCKER, MARGARETHE (nee LUBBERT)	Buer-Hustadte
POTCKER, FRIEDRICH	Buer-Hustadte
POTCKER, MARGARETHE (nee DUVENDACK)	Schledehausen-Krevinghausen
POTCKER, HEINRICH	Buer-Hustadte
POTCKER, CAROLINE (nee GREVENKAMPER)	Buer-Sehlingdorf
FIENUP, WILHELM	Melle-Altenmelle
FIENUP, MARIA (nee LUBBERT)	Buer-Eicken
FIENUP, LOUISE	Melle-Bakum
FIENUP, LOUISE	Melle-Altenmelle
LUBBERT, HENRICH	Buer
LUBBERT, LOUISE	Buer
LUBBERT, LOUISE	Buer

The best source for information about ancestors from the Gronenberg/Melle area is the church books. Since the Protestant Reformation the area has been traditionally Lutheran and these are Lutheran parish churches for some of the Orpheus passengers:

Church	Town	Postal Zone
St.Martini	Buer	4520 Melle 5
St.Petri	Melle	4520 Melle 1
Christopherus	Neunenkirchen	4520 Melle 8
Marienkirche	Oldendorf	4520 Melle 1
St.Antonius	Riemslch-Hoyel	4520 Melle 7
St.Laurentius	Schledenhausen	4516 Bissendorf 2
Kirchengemeinde Rabber	Husede	4515 Bad Essen 1
Kirchengemeinde-Holte	Holte	4516 Bissendorf 1
Gemeindeamt Bunde	Werfen	4980 Bunde 1

Between 1840-1900 many families from the Gronenberg area came to America. Some of the families related to the passengers on the Orpheus were:

Family	home town & villages
POTKER	BAD ESSEN, LINDORF, HUSEDE, BULSTEN, MARKENDORF & RABBER
FINUP (FIENUP/VINUP)	GERDEN, HOLTE & SUNSBECK
KNIGGE	MELLE, NEUENKIRCHEN, BUNDE, GROSS, ASCHEN, DEPENBROK, HOYEL, WEST HOYEL, RIEMSLOH
KONKER/KINKER	MELLE & SCHIPLAGE
RAHE	BUER
PRANTE	BUER
BARTELT	HOLTE
PURTNER/PUERTNER	RODINGHAUSEN
DUVENDACK	KREVINGHAUSEN
RIESE/REESE	KREVINGHAUSEN

When the immigrants from Gronenberg/Melle came to America they tended to settle in four areas. One was the southern portion of Ohio in the counties of Jackson, Lawrence and Scioto. Another favorite area was Cincinnati and nearby Ohio & Indiana counties. Another area was Evansville IN & the surrounding counties, particularly Pike & Dubois. A fourth area was St.Louis and nearby Missouri & Illinois counties. St.Charles County, MO evan has a town named New Melle.

An interesting note is that the Orpheus was a record-setting sailing ship. By the 1850's steam ships were hauling freight and passengers across the Atlantic Ocean. To compete for the lucrative immigration business, the Konitsky and Thiermann Company in Bremen had built the fast sailing clipper. In December 1854 under Captain Schilling, the Orpheus set a record for a passenger ship by sailing from Bremerhaven to New York with 250 passengers in just 18 days and 6 hours.

In 1864 the Orpheus sailed under Captain Johann Philip Wessel, arrived 7 Oct 1864, with these passengers:

PEACOCK FAMILY ANCESTRY

Carol Willsey Bell, C.G.*

One of the joys of genealogy is that records often turn up in the most unexpected places!! Recently, while looking for something else, the following record surfaced in the Brown Co. Ohio: Probate Journal No.1-A (1852-1855), pages 103-106, located in the annex building at the Brown County Fairgrounds in Georgetown. The compiler has a photocopy of the complete record for anyone interested. This writer cannot recall ever seeing such a complete and informative record in a court record. It is presented here verbatim, as it is almost impossible to abstract this very informative story!

HOLMES COUNTY: 1818 PERSONAL PROPERTY TAX

David Marshall*

In 1818, a special tax levy was passed in Coshocton County which resulted in taxation upon personal property consisting of horses and cattle. This occurred eight years before the Ohio chattel tax was established in 1826. In 1818, only two townships existed in the area which later became Holmes County: Hardy and German. Hardy covered the area which now includes Knox, Monroe and the western part of Berlin Township. German Township covered Clark, Walnut Creek, Eastern Berlin and southern Paint Townships. Mechanic, Killbuck and Richland Townships were included in Millcreek and Newcastle Townships. The following is a list of those residents who appear in Hardy, German, Mechanic and Richland Townships. Richland Township was included with the Newcastle, Coshocton Twp. list, but with the aid of the land tax schedule, it was possible to separate those living in Holmes County. H = horses C = cattle.

This list originally appeared in HOLMES COUNTY HEIRS, publication of the Holmes County Chapter O.G.S., in Vol.4 No.4 p35 and Vol.5 no.1 p.2. It is reprinted here with the permission of the compiler. The unusual nature of this early personal property list makes it an important contribution to pre-1820 records for Holmes County.

71ST OHIO VOLUNTEER INFANTRY

Muriel A. Bolitho*

The compiler, in her family research, found that her great-grandfather had served in the 71st Ohio Volunteer Infantry during the Civil War. Unable to find a regimental history, she started a two year search for information, appalled by a book sellers at a Civil War show telling her that the 71st "were cowards and had cut & run at Shiloh." The following account is as much of the truth as she could find after over a century of neglect.

In November 1861, LEWIS COOPER, aged 40, left his wife Mary Ann and their 6 children to enlist in the Union Army. Lewis was born in 1821 in Springfield Tp., Hamilton Co., Ohio, the eldest son of Edmund & Mary (Seward) Cooper. In the mid 1850's, Edmund removed his family to Orange Tp., Shelby Co., OH. It was here that Lewis married Mary Ann TERWILLIGER in 1841. He was a farmer, blacksmith, Justice of the Peace, and now about to become a soldier.

On 27 Nov 1861 Lewis Cooper took his oath of allegiance to the Union. His eldest son, Martin, enlisted 22 Feb 1862, aged 20. For the next four years the 71st OVI would take its men from Pittsburgh Landing to Atlanta, back across the United States to be mustered out 30 Nov 1865 near San Antonio, Texas.

"Seventy-first Ohio Volunteer Infantry, 879 men, Rodney Mason, colonel, rendezvoused at Camp David Tod at Troy, Miami Co., OH, completing organization in February 1862. On Feb.14, reported to Gen.Sherman at Paducah KY; served in southern KY & TN in spring & summer 1862; four companies of the regiment statined at Clarkesville, county seat of Montgomery Co TN, 17 Aug 1862, was surrendered without battle by Col.Mason to a KY & TN militia force led by Col.Woodward of KY, a West Point graduate. For this the line officers were dismissed and Col.Mason cashiered. After the War Department was more fully informed of the numerical weakness of this force, the order was revoked, and all the officers honorably discharged. After exchange of prisoners and reuniting of the regiment it continued to do good service in Tennessee until 1864, ordered to garrison duty in Texas in 1864; mustered out at San Antonio TX 30 Nov 1865, 377 men, veterans, Lt.Col.James H. Hart, commanding." (Hardesty's Encyclopedia)

Pittsburgh Landing, Sun. 6 Apr 1862. As Buell and the Army of Ohio started its march south to Pittsburgh Landing, the 71st was already in camp near Shiloh Church having taken part in battles of Fort Donelson, Fort Henry and Columbus-Belmont. The exact location on the battlefield is hard to determine. The 71st was assigned to the Second Brigade of Sherman's Unit with Col.McDowell in command. Sherman was camped around Shiloh Church. On April 6th the pressure of the Confederate attack, the entire Union line began to fall back. In early afternoon the line parted, allowing a unit of Confederate soldiers to pass through, engaging Union troops to the rear. On hearing firing behind them some Union soldiers broke and ran. It seems the 71st was in this group. They reorganized and again took their place on the battlefield, according to Hardesty.

"The Seventy-First in Sherman's division, was in the hottest of the fight until 2 pm on the 6th, when it fell back, still fighting, was again engaged on Monday and on both days lost (130 killed?) and wounded." (Another source: 27 killed).

The 71st OVI organized at Camp Todd, Troy Ohio Sept 1861 to Jan 1862. Mustered in 1 Feb 1862. Ordered to Paducah KY 10 Feb 1862. Attached to District of Paducah KY. The compiler hopes this exonerates those men who served in the 71st OVI, and are no longer here to defend themselves.

OHIOANS IN NEW YORK CHURCH RECORDS

Joan S. Goodrich*

The following records relate to admissions & dismissions from the Peterboro Presbyterian Church, Peterboro, Madison County, New York, 1836-1871. The church was founded in 1806 and disbanded in 1871. In 1843, a schism developed due to differences on slavery and temperance. The noted abolitionist Gerrit Smith, lead a large portion of the congregation in seceeding from the church and in forming the Church of Peterboro, or more commonly known as "Free Church." On 12 July 1862 the congregation voted to dissolve its connection with the Presbytery of Onondaga and to become an independent Congregational Church. Surviving records, which start in 1836, are in the collections of the Madison County Historical Society, Oneida NY.

CAULKINS, Mrs. Mary N. wife of Caleb; listed in 1836 membership book, but it appears to be a later entry; 4 Jan 1840, joined by letter from the Congregational church, Oberlin (OH?); 22 Jly 1844 listed as an absent member to be visited to determine if she remains a member or has decided to separate with the seceeding members.

MASON, Joseph, in 1836 membership book; 15 Oct 1837, dismissed to the Presbyterian church, Paynesville OH

SMITH, Laura, in 1836 membership book (later entry?); rec'd by profession; 27 Aug 1841 dismissed by letter to join a church in Ohio.

STEADMAN, Caroline, in 1836 membership book; rec'd by profession, 28 Jly 1844; dismissed to Presbyterian Church, Ohio City, Cuyahoga Co OH.

STEADMAN, Eliza, in 1836 membership book (later entry?); 19 May 1839 examined & proposed for membership; 1 Sep 1839, received; 10 Sep 1841, dismissed to join a church in Ohio.

STEADMAN, Louisa, 28 Jly 1844 dismissed at her request to Presbyterian Church, Medina Co OH. Letter identifies her as "Mrs. Louisa Steadman SPRING" & states she moved from Peterboro to Jordan, Onondaga Co NY "some 5 years since," then to Oswego Co NY, and "more recently to Homer, Medina Co OH." A Mrs. Louisa Spring is listed in 1836 membership book with "gone without letter."

Virginia Genealogical Society

As the oldest English colony in the territorial United States, Virginia is the ancestral home of descendants living in all fifty states. Many have returned to visit its historical shrines and to witness the scenes where their ancestors gave their toil and blood to establish a garden for those who proudly bear their names. The Magazine of Virginia Genealogy, revised and expanded in 1984, publishes 17th and 18th century source material of interest to those who desire to establish their Virginia heritage. The colonial land patents, those first claims in the new Eden, are continuing in its pages where Cavaliers and Pioneers, Vol. III, left off. Patent Book 15 (1732–1735) started with the November 1985 issue; Book 17 is concluded in the February 1987 issue. These records are invaluable for the amateur and professional researcher alike. Surry County tithable lists for 1668–1703 were presented in Volumes 22–24 (1984–86) of the Magazine of Virginia Genealogy. Early Prince George and Halifax Court Minutes are currently running. Compensating for the loss of records in "burned" counties, merchants' accounts give numerous clues to family relationships; Hanover County in particular has rediscovered its past in these records.

Membership in the Virginia Genealogical Society is a nominal $18 ($20 for couples) and brings with it the quarterly Magazine of Virginia Genealogy, the bi-monthly VGS Newsletter, *a lively bulletin containing research tips in Virginia, reviews, members' queries, and notices of meetings, as well as reduced fees for annual Spring and Fall genealogical meets.
